Gentlemen:

Responding to your card, I enclose a list of our monographs. We do not allow discount to libraries, but we do suggest that they obtain our publications by enrolling as Associate members. The annual dues are $5.00, which entitle a member to our publications, the total value of which is usually in excess of this sum.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr.Noe,

I am making a reference collection of the various permanent collections of Art Museums throughout the United States and would like very much to have some material of the Numismatic Society and their work.

Should there be any charge for catalogs etc. will you kindly let me know and I will forward the money.

Thanking you for whatever information you may give me,I am

Dear Madam:

I am enclosing a copy of our historical sketch together with a list of our Numismatic Notes and Monographs. We have no catalogue of our collection, although for medals there is a publication of the International Exhibition of 1910, which sells for $6.00, and the catalogue of the Exhibition of the National Sculpture Society, held in 1923, contains a section devoted to medals. This, I think, you probably have already; it could be sent for $2.00 in the contrary event.

I trust this will give you the information you desire.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
